

Microsoft Access – Starting Access

Starting Access 2007

Access 2007 can be started by:

1. Click on the Windows Start button.
2. Select Programs, then Microsoft Office 2007.
3. Select the package Microsoft Office Access 2007.

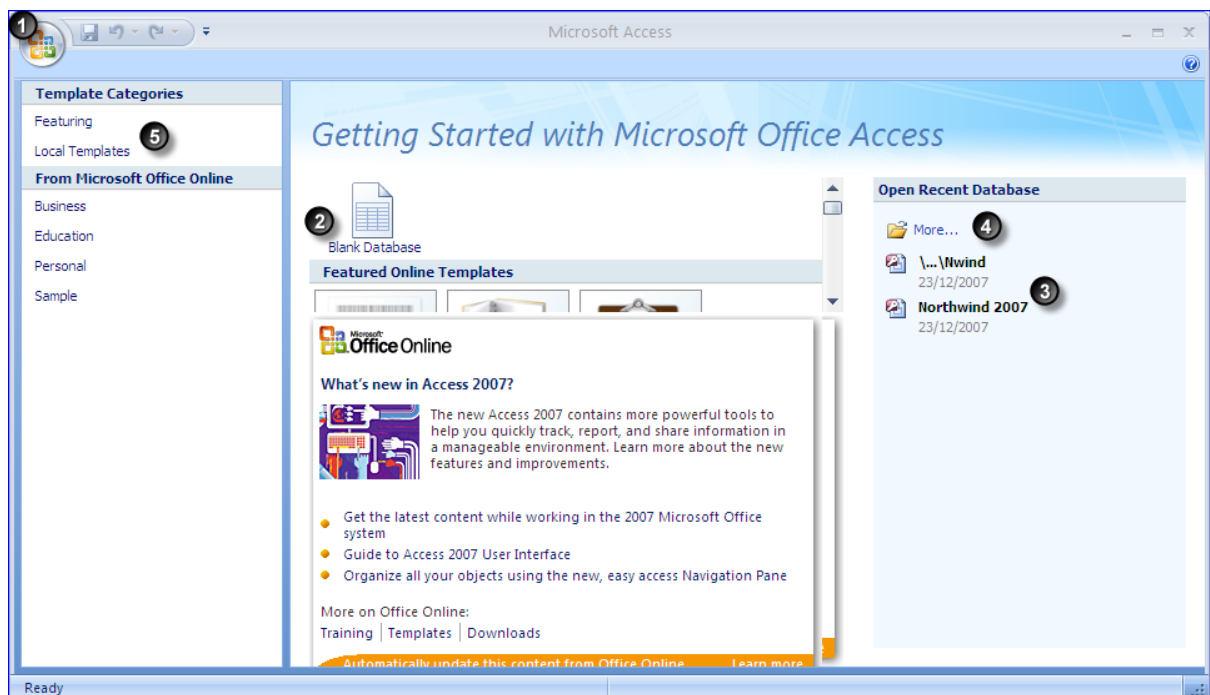

Or

By clicking on the

Icon

This brings up the opening screen

The different elements of the screen are:

1. The Office button – This brings up the main menu system.

Microsoft Access – Starting Access

2. Blank Database – To create a blank database.
3. Recent Databases – Lists databases that have been opened recently.
4. More... - allows you to choose the database to open from the file system.
5. Template categories –creates a new database based on a template.