

Microsoft Access – Caption

Caption

The caption allows you to set the column heading if you want it to be different to the field name. If no entry is made then the field name is displayed. It can be used to display the name in lay mans terms if technical terms are used for field names, or if no spaces are used in the field names then the caption could have the spaces in so that it appears better on the screen and reports.